

Asia Education Foundation

Asia Literacy
Ambassadors

Partnering Businesses & Schools

Partnership Plan

Partnership Name/ Title	How does Asia skills set me apart?
Anticipated Start Date	17 February 2011	Anticipated End Date:	17 July 2011
Ambassador Name	Lina Koleilat	Key School Contact Name	Rohan Bramley

Objective of the Partnership	To investigate with the students how do Asia skills set us apart in a career context and in general. To share with the students the value of being Asia literate. To offer the students a chance to investigate and ask questions about what it means to be Asia literate and/or to have Asia skills. To give the opportunity for students to see Asia skills in action For the students to observe 'Asia skills' in a professional workspace
Partnership Team	Nossal High School- Rohan Bramley - LOTE Domain Leader Lina Koleilat- Asia Education Foundation – Ambassador Nossal High School Executive and wider staff
Resources Required	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Time for the preparation and delivery of the activities outlined in the table below - Transport for Ambassador, To/From Nossal High School - Transport and logistics for the pilot Workplace Program - Time will be allocated for moderating blog
Key Considerations	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - How will we measure the success of each partnership task/ activity? - Year 10 Japanese language students will be the focus - Distance
Key Milestones	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Face to face interaction with the students - Session with the school leadership team and staff - Pilot Work Placement Program - Skype interaction with the students - Web blog